

PREVENT DELAYS WITH TRANSFER CREDITS

Submit your syllabi before the deadline

To expedite the course evaluation process, please email course syllabi for Pending Transfer Courses (coded TRN XFRPEN) to Undergraduate Admissions at crediteval@psu.edu.

DEADLINES: Spring — March 1 | Summer — June 1 | Fall — October 1

If you submit syllabi prior to the deadline, they will be evaluated in a process that can take only 4–6 weeks.

When Penn State faculty conduct evaluations, they assign appropriate course codes to your Pending Transfer Courses, which may apply to your degree program.

The Transfer Credit Tool is where you may search for the most recent faculty evaluations of transfer courses.

MET DEADLINE

MISSED DEADLINE

If you don't submit syllabi by the deadline, the process will take longer.

Pending Transfer Courses become General Transfer Courses (coded TRN XFRGEN) after the deadline.

Your Transfer Credit Specialist may ask you to provide syllabi for TRN XFRGEN courses. They will work with your program's academic college or department to determine possible application in your degree.

You will be notified via email regarding the determination(s).
