Dates and Deadlines

- Check the academic calendar to review upcoming dates and deadlines.

Features

Student Story: Stacy White
While earning her Bachelor of Science in Psychology through Penn State World Campus, Stacy White faces challenges common to many adult students — namely, working long hours, running a large household, and making time for volunteer activities. Successfully navigating those hurdles has helped her career, she says, because peers and managers notice her drive and determination, along with the leadership skills she has developed.
Read Stacy White’s story

Preparing for a Major Career Shift
Nathaniel Schierman is a zookeeper at Cleveland Metroparks Zoo. But because he and his family will soon be relocating to an area without a zoo, Nathaniel needed to explore other career paths. He is set to complete his master's degree in education this spring and is pursuing a career in higher education.
Read Nathaniel’s story of career change

Military Students Get Support from Their Advisers
Our military academic advisers provide valuable advice and support to military-affiliated undergraduate students. They can guide you through every step of your academic journey and help you solve any challenges you may face along the way.
Learn more about military academic advisers

Join the Spring Virtual Book Club
The Virtual Book Club is designed to provide a shared experience among new students who read the same book and discuss the concepts introduced. The 2018–2019 book club selection is Bryan Stevenson's Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption. By requesting a free copy of the e-book, you will be added to the book club, which begins on Saturday, February 9. You can also participate in a livestream event featuring Stevenson this spring.
Register for the virtual book club
Blind Date with a Book
Get a surprise book chosen based on your reading tastes by participating in "Blind Date with a Book" through Penn State University Libraries. Complete a short online form, and you'll get a book in the mail that has been chosen specifically as a match for you.
Sign up for Blind Date with a Book

Events

Upcoming Career Webinars
Over the next few weeks, we will be hosting several webinars on a range of career-related topics, including improving your LinkedIn profile, crafting an impressive résumé, and preparing for the career fair.
Check the event calendar for upcoming webinars

Resource Spotlight

Scholarship Opportunities
Applications are now being accepted for Penn State World Campus scholarships. Scholarships are available to both full-time and part-time undergraduate students, and you only need to submit a single application to be considered for all of the available scholarships. Deadline to apply is Sunday, March 31.
Learn how to apply for a scholarship

Nittany Lion Careers
Penn State recently launched a new system called Nittany Lion Careers, which offers useful resources for students and alumni. Combining previously existing tools with new resources and expanded capabilities, this system lets you participate in career fairs and job interviews, browse job postings, and set up an appointment with a career counselor.
Find out more about Nittany Lion Careers

Get Help from Tutor.com
Tutor.com is a professional tutoring service built into select courses to assist students in writing, math, and other subjects. You can chat live with a tutor about a subject or submit a writing assignment for review.
See which courses offer Tutor.com

Visit Us on Social Media