Features

Participate in the Undergraduate Exhibition
Apply to take part in the Undergraduate Exhibition, which offers undergraduate students an opportunity to make a presentation, give a performance, or display a creative project on Wednesday, April 17, on the Penn State University Park campus. Those selected to participate can apply for financial assistance to help with travel costs. The submission deadline for entries is Sunday, March 24.

Become a Student Ambassador
The Penn State World Campus Student Ambassador program provides students with a variety of service opportunities and rewarding activities. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis — but the sooner you apply, the sooner you can reap the benefits of this valuable experience while supporting other students.

New Clubs for Students
Consider joining one or both of our two recently created student organizations. The Digital Multimedia Design Club offers a community for students in the digital multimedia design program, along with a chance to learn about research practices and career options. The Military Service Organization provides connections and support for students who are veterans, active duty, military spouses, and allies of the Armed Forces.
